1. As you are aware, 40 KY-70 secure telephone terminals were procured in late 1977 for delivery in mid-1979. The reference requested that the Deputy Directors revalidate their secure voice requirements in order that allocation of the terminals could be made according to the relative priorities of all Agency requirements. The Office of Communications (OC) will soon forward a listing of the revalidated requirements to the Comptroller for further action. ☐

2. OC has just recently become aware of the attached memorandum concerning the Executive Secure Voice Network (ESVN). The last two paragraphs of that memorandum define the ESVN terminal population and designate the National Communications System (NCS) as the ESVN program coordinator with equipment prioritization and reallocation authority. ☐

3. For your information, then, the 40 KY-70 terminals procured by the Agency are part of the "150 additional terminals validated by the SCC special subcommittee" indicated in the attachment and, as such, come under the NCS authority for prioritization and reallocation. ☐
